Mayor Onderko's Corner
Richard M. Onderko, Mayor
Borough of Manville

Management to make Manville more storm resilient dealing with flooding. A special local committee has been assigned to review our existing plan and prioritize new projects. We will seek state and federal grants for help with project implementations. The updated County HMP plan is due in the July timeframe.

We have also worked on improving our Community Rating System (CRS) ranking with FEMA to further reduce flood insurance policy premiums from the current 15% discount to either a 20% or 25% discount. We should know the results of our efforts later this spring and bring additional savings to those residents paying for flood insurance.

The continued acquisition and demolition of homes acquired through the Blue Acres program using hurricane Sandy disaster related funds will continue during 2018. This $31 million-dollar federal grant allowed for 104 homes to be bought out and has been on-going since 2015. We hope to receive a full accounting soon of funds expended to date and if any additional homes can be purchased with any left-over funds.

A capital acquisition program is being developed as part of this budget cycle to replace old equipment and to address vehicle needs of our Borough. The past several years we have successfully paid down prior capital debts from previous bond offerings. Currently there is a significant savings in this year's debt service payment schedule to allow a capital program to move forward and not adversely affect property taxes.

Finally, work continues on the digitization of the Borough's paper tax maps, to review and codify the Borough's ordinances into a searchable, electronic format, and updating the redevelopment plans for the Rustic Mall property. All of these projects will prove to keep us very busy in 2018! I will keep everyone informed of our progress in the months ahead.

Until next month,
 Mayor Richard M. Onderko

M Partnership Benefits Manville School

Weston Elementary School received over 40 Brother machines including printers, scanners, P-touch labelers, and a Scan N Cut crafting machine to completely transform the school's office equipment technology.

Through this partnership, Brother hopes to significantly increase the efficiency of operations at the school, so that more of the teachers' time could be devoted to educating. In addition to the technology donation, Weston Elementary received two years' worth of refill supplies and Brother's commitment to conduct some interactive activities at the school.

Do you know anything about these images? The Manville Public Library's collection of historic Manville images are being digitized and they need your help. Each month we will publish a photo or two to ask for information. If you know what event is happening or can identify the person in this image contact Nanette Peterson, Manville Branch Manager at 908-722-9722 or npeterso@sclibnj.org.

Is the fire truck being blessed? Is it a ground breaking for the new building?

Do you know who the woman is behind the soda fountain, the name of the store and when this might have been taken?

Detective Bill Sampson went over three of the scams in the area. If you receive a cashier's check in the mail asking you to cash the check and return some of the money back to the person who sent it to you this is a scam. When you are approaching your vehicle and a person stops you and tells you that you hit their car and pressures you on the spot to pay for the damage call the police. When using your cell phone and the screen goes blank and a phone number appears telling you that your account has been hacked and to call the number on the screen, that is also a scam. When you call this number they are only interested in obtaining your personal information.

Captain Mark Sniscak went over the Manville Police Department personnel. There are 22 officers in the department, 4 administrative, 5 sergeants, 2 detectives and 11 patrolmen. The dispatching is done by Somerset County. The patrols are first on scene with the detectives doing the follow up investigation. The DARE Program under the supervision of Detective Dave Sheffrin and will be instituted again in the 5th grade. On a rotating basis the county uses officers for the narcotics squad. Manville also sends officers to the Swat Team and Accident Reconstruction Team on an as needed basis.

Detective Sampson was asked about the Blue Angel Program which is the lock box for medically necessary people who have no one living with them. There are applications available at the police station.

Year end reports were given by Treasurer Kathy Petrone, Trustee Barbara

Panfile and Membership Secretary Nick Trilone.

Thank you notes were received from the Gold Star Mothers and the Manville Library for the reception and buffet given to the members of the convoy for the Wreaths Across America held in December 2017. One of the posters done by Fred Sopko will be put in their Museum in Maine.

Catch Basin Maintenance – Part II

Over the last two months, Manville's Department of Public Works employees have been inspecting and cleaning the nearly 700 catch basins throughout the Borough. This is a task regulated by the NJ Storm Water Management Program. During the inspection and cleaning, any catch basin in need of repair is identified and ranked based on severity. Once the ranking is completed, the repairs begin. Pictured is a repair recently completed on Brooks Boulevard.

A repair not only assures the proper collection and flow of rainwater to the storm water system, but also eliminates unwanted litter and other pollutants from making their way into our waterways.

The Borough of Manville's catch basins are identified with these markers.

Remember, if goes down there, it will end up in our streams, lakes, and rivers affecting our wildlife and drinking water.

Catch basin with grate removed – shows roadway collapsing due to wall of catch basin caving in.

Demo of the catch basin – roadway and sidewalk demo to remove frame and remove/rebuild the walls of the catchbasin.

Finished Product – catch basin rebuilt, frame and grate installed. Patching of roadway and sidewalk.

Manville Police Department Offers New Programs

The Manville Police Department is in the process of implementing three instructional programs designed to increase police / student interaction for 2018.

The first program is the re-implementation of the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) curriculum for the 5th. Grade students at Roosevelt School. The D.A.R.E.'s keepin' it REAL curriculum is designed based on the Socio-Emotional Learning Theory. Since 1983 D.A.R.E. has demonstrated leadership in the prevention of drug abuse. Collaborative efforts among Law Enforcement, Education and Prevention Science have distinguished the D.A.R.E. program as being successful. D.A.R.E.'s keepin' it REAL continues this commitment to provide cutting edge instruction that prevents drug use by developing basic, core skills needed for safe and responsible choices. Detective Dave Sheffrin, the department's newly appointed DARE Officer, started the program January.

The second program is titled #NotEvenOnce, which partners specially trained police officers teaching students about opiate awareness. The objective of the program is to provide information to young adults (age 16-18) about making informed decisions regarding the use of opiates (prescription pills and heroin) while building positive relationships between the police and students.

The third program is titled "Share the Keys," (STK) which is a research-based, data-driven orientation designed to reduce teen driver crash risks through increased parental involvement. The orientation is approximately 60 to 90 minutes and is offered as a voluntary program for parents, school staff, police and their teen drivers. While STK is beneficial throughout the three stages of licensure, parents and teens experience the greatest benefit when participating prior to or during the driving permit phase. It provides valuable information, tools and resources that support the development of safe driving habits for life.

Both the #NotEvenOnce and the "Share the Keys Program" will be instructed by Detective Sheffrin and Detective William Sampson.

Tax Counselors Ready to Help Out This Tax Season

Appointments Available Through April 15

Somerset County Freeholder Brian D. Levine has announced that the county Office of Volunteer Services and AARP have again teamed up this year to provide free tax-counseling assistance to residents in preparing their federal and New Jersey income tax returns.

"As a CPA, I know the importance of providing quality tax preparation service to our residents," said Freeholder Levine, human services liaison. "This program helped almost 3,000 people last year. I encourage all eligible residents to take advantage of this free service."

The volunteer program, Tax-Aide, is designed to help area residents prepare their tax returns. The program places specific emphasis on assisting seniors, residents with disabilities, and lower income residents, but is open to everybody.

About 70 tax-preparation volunteers provide direct support, working at six different sites within Somerset County – Montgomery, Hillsborough, Manville, Bridgewater, Franklin and Green Brook. These volunteers have many years of experience and receive annual training on the latest federal and state tax regulations to ensure returns are prepared accurately and take advantage of all credits and deductions available to the taxpayer. All tax-preparation volunteers are tested and certified by the IRS annually at the advanced level.

Tax returns are filed electronically, enabling taxpayers to obtain a more rapid refund if there is money coming back to them. Volunteers also can assist with preparing Property Tax Reimbursement

It's Your Lucky Day!

Stop by the SCLSNJ's Manville branch on Saturday, March 17th – yes, St. Patrick's Day – and enjoy some traditional Irish music.

Mark Kilianski (guitar), and Deb Shebish (fiddle) carry on the tradition of Irish music with vibrance and reverence. Lively reels and jigs, boisterous pub songs, and tender ballads can be expected, as well as the stories and history that go along with them. After establishing an explosive musical connection at the Appalachian String Band Festival in West Virginia, the two now team up to bring Irish music to the people of New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Berklee College of Music graduate and NJ native Mark Kilianski tours full time as a solo artist, and with Americana duo Hoot and Holler. Deb Shebish holds a Masters Degree in Scottish Studies from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and a Bachelors of Music in Violin Performance from Indiana State University.
